

WELCOME Growth and Innovation

This year ACV Group signed a collaboration agreement with one of the most important universities in the Laguna area, Universidad Autonoma de la Laguna.

ACV Group and Universidad Autonoma de la Laguna are working in order to accomplish the objectives of the agreement which will be very beneficial for both parties

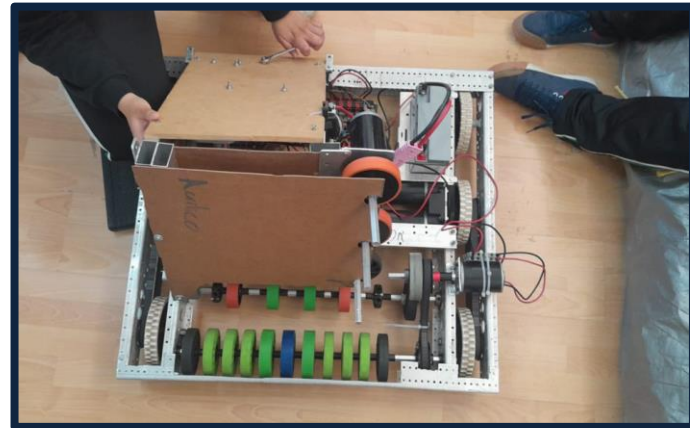

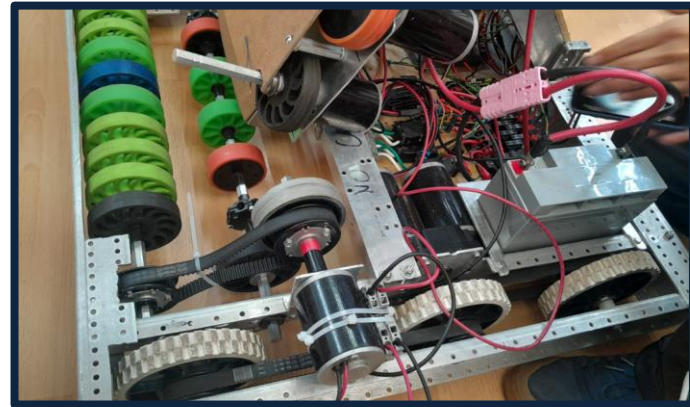

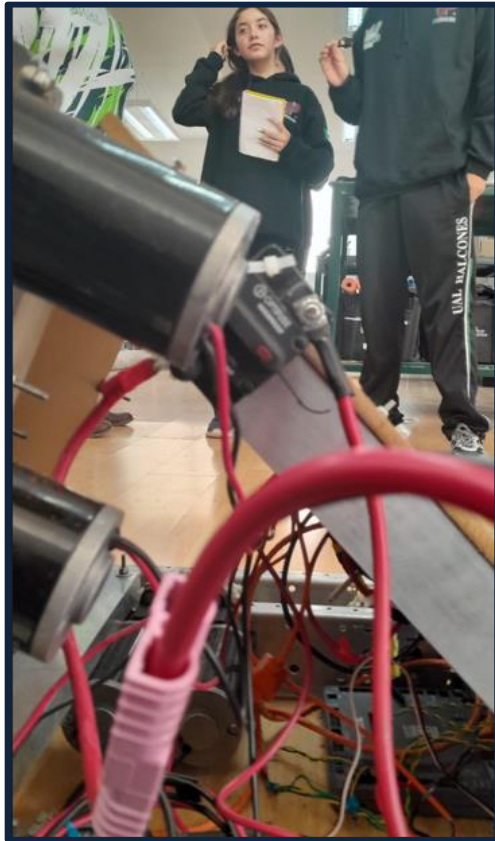

- Scholarships for ACV's personnel and their direct family
- Students can do their Social services in the company
- Professional Training for the students
- The university students could have the opportunity to work in ACV Group

Last February the robotic team from Universidad Autonoma de la Laguna visited our facilities, spending some time and meeting some ACV's collaborators.
